Ecology, conservation of language and movement, the immediacy of language and narrative - Old single ladies are free - Cats are the best animal – Women are feline – cats are the main characters of the world – what is smell ? what is sound? particles crossing our synaptic membranes – making us behave, fall in love – behave with the same validity and volatility as cats – why do we parquet floor across soil – sun burnt feet – flip – flop – tan – line -messy bad sculptures messy bad art Working alone in ur bedroom – getting soil on the carpet – delicious glossy – salty – minty – smell as 4 dimensional object

Scents and sounds that trigger biological responses in humans and felids discretely, using this pseudo- scientific basis I create a narrative, utilising image and language. This mingles in with felid femineity, exploring the intersection of womanhood and cats, their co-habitation in media and the concept of the 'Cat Lady'.

Hi have a look at some of my drawings if u desire :3
